The Week Past a Lively One, All Dealers in Dirt Doing a Good Business.

Numerous New Offices Opening Up With Live Men Working for Business

The Building Boom Continues -The Broadwater Hotel Forging to the Fore.

The past week in real estate has been one of lively interest, the principal object of note being the number of new effices that have been opened up in that time with promise of more to come. One dealer remarked "the more the merrier," while another said "Somebody is going to get left." and still another exclaimed "We shall see what we shall see." The real estate busi ness is becoming epidemic; everybody is going into it. But no matter how many there will be, Col. Langhorne says he will continue to sell lots cheaper than any of them. He will let land go by the acre at $1.25 and still make money. He has 35,000,900 acres at his disposal, and any one who doubts this may visit him at the United States land office on lower Main Building activity continues, however, which gives an impetus to the real estate business. Good mechanics, such as stone masons, bricklayers and carpenters can readily find employment. The force now engaged in the construction of the Broadwater hotel and plunge bath numbers close to 175. The bath structure trame is up and The bath structure frame is up and towers about forty feet from the ground in the form of an arch. A force of laborers are making a ditch from the warm springs to the plunge bath. Ground was broken Friday for Col. Broadwater's west side residence, which is to cost $100,000. The colonel's stable alone will cost $20,000. The colonel's stable alone will cost $20,000. About the most important building enter prise undertaken this year has just commenced in the erection of fifty residences on the west side; the least cost of each being $3,000. George S. Appleton, the architect, has secured the contract for the work tect, has secured the contract for the work coming known all over the country.

The plans for the bridge at the foot of Main street have been drawn up and were placed in Superintendent Kimberly's hands a few days ago. That gentleman has ordered the lumber for its construction. The bridge will be similar to that of the Montana Central, but it will be 40 feet wide and 65 feet long. It will be necessary to lower the tract three feet, and this work will soon be done. Following the completion of this piece of work, the street railway company intends to extend its line down Main and passing over the bridge into the Flower Garden and other additions.

A roundup among the real estate men did not result in anything startling, but each one expressed satisfaction with the week's work.

TO-DAY'S TRANSFERS. The following real estate transfers were filed in the recorder's office yesterday:

The Sale of Boxes Made and the Sale of Seats Begins To-morrow.

The regular sale of seats for the two evenings of this charming opera begins temorrow morning at 10 o'clock at Pope & O'Connor's store. The sale of boxes yesterday was most gratifying in its results, and doubtless the sale of seats will secure to the Encore club the substantial benefit which it most certainly deserves at the hands of the public. Ben Harris, who has a genius for surprises, and who knows how to do a graceful deed just when it is bound to be appreciated, bid in the lower box to be appreciated, bid in the lower box for the first evening's performance pester-day and then presented it to the lady mem-bers of the Encore club for their use that night. One of the all important factors in the success of such a work as the club has in hand is the management of the orchestra and the chorus, and in this position Prof. Yeager is a master. His baton is as true as his heart beats and the chorus relies upon his direction with perfect confidence in his skill. With the professor at the baton and Messrs. Hill and Child attending to the stage business. Child attending to the stage business, who can doubt that the splendid company will earn the plaudits of its hosts of friends on Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

A FAMILY OF CENTENARIANS.

Three Sisters and a Brother, All More than a Hundred Years Old. Washington, O., special: The remarkable longevity of many people in Ohio is a matter of great interest at the present time. Mrs. Margaret Arnold, of Pickaway county, is undoubtedly the most aged person in the state. I visited the home of this venerable lady, and secured the following information: Mrs. Margaret Arnold was born near Richmond, Va., July 4, 1777. Her father, Robert Kiser, had a family of twelve children, four of whom are still living. Margaret was a handsome girl, and while very young married Mr. Frederick Arnold, who has been dead more than half a century. She came to Ohio in the year 1818, and set-tled for one winter at Chillicothe. From tied for one winter at Chillicothe. From that place she removed to a farm in Fayette county, Ohio, and presently to Illinois, where she remained twenty-eight years. She made her living at the tailor trade un-til age crept upon her, when she returned to Ohio. She has been living for a number of years with has been living for a number of years with her son, Mr. Henry Arnold, on a thousand acre farm, through which runs the dividing line of Fayette and Pickaway counties.

Mrs. Arnold spends her time in bed and it was with difficulty that she was persuaded to sit up long enough for me to secure her protograph. She did not enjoy being up in this way, and although she could not see—her eyes being closed most of the time—she knew that something unusual was going on and seemed restless.

Mrs. Arnold began about seventy years ago to smoke tobacco and kept up this practice until six months ago. She still occasionally calls for her pipe, but when it is lighted and brought to her she cannot smoke.

Two daughters and three sons were born to Mr. and Mrs. Arnold, and their two youngest sons were twins. One of the twins, William Arnold, is living at Greenland, Ross county, aged seventy years.

The childron are very attentive to their mether in her helplessness.
As above stated, there are four living members of her father's family, and each of them is over one hundred years of age. The eldest sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Hillard, is living in Lynn county, Iowa, having been twice married. She is 115 years of

The other sister, Mrs. John Bailey, is living in Dakota at the age of 109 years. Henry Arnold received a letter from Mrs. Bailey's daughter-in-law only the week before last, which stated that the old lady was in good health and able to walk about the yard, her sight being good.

William Kiser, the only living brother, who was thought to be dead, is still living at the old home place near Richmond, Va., aged 104 years. William never left the scene of his childhood, having spent more than a century on the same old farm.

If there is a family in the United States that can show as remarkable a record for longevity as the Kiser family it has not been made public.

Riotous Poles in Manistee Mich., Attack a Priest and the Militia are Called On.

The Polish Aversion to Water the Only Thing that Prevents Disastrous Consequences.

Exorbitant Taxes Levied by Father Grochawski the Cause of the Trouble-Fight of the Factions.

MANISTEE, Mich., May 4 .- A Polish priest was assaulted on the street this morning by one faction of his church. A general riot resulted, in which men and women participated. The militia were called out to quell the riot. The fire department was also called out and turned the hose upon the mob. After nearly drowning several rioters peace was re-stored. The sheriff attempted to arrest the leaders, and was attacked by the women. several of whom were knocked down. Ten rioters have been jailed. A guard was stationed at the priest's house to pre-vent further trouble.

The trouble commenced three months ago over money matters. The people to the number of one-third of the congregation opposed Rev. Father Grochawski, whom they claimed has compelled them to occasionally calls for her pipe, but when it is lighted and brought to her she cannot smoke.

A very remarkable feature in her case is that she still has an excellent appetite and eats almost anything a sturdy harvest hand would relish. Her digestion is good, and strange as it may seem, in all her long life she never was placed under the care of a physician and never lost a meal on account of sickness. She is five feet two inches in height and weighs 110 pounds.

The venerable lady has not worked any for more than three years, when she knit a pair of stockidg for her little grandson. These stockings have been preserved as relices of the excellent work Mrs. Arnold could perform at the age of 108 years.

Two daughters and three sons were born to Mr. Pand Mrs. Arnold could perform at the second when it whom they claimed has compelled them to pay exorbitant taxes to support the church. Six ring leaders were arrested for assault and battery in February, but after a trial were acquitted. Since that the trouble has continued, two parties running the church, both selling pews and transacting business. Last Sunday the priest went through the church asking for the certificates of pew holders. Puriel, one of his opponents, drew a knife and told the priest the knife was his certificate. A riot ensued yesterday, the women attacking the priest and his faction. The police dispersed the morning. More trouble is expected to morrow.
